A Note from the Editor

Inside This Issue

- 1 A Note from the Editor
- 2 SIGACCESS Officers and Information
- 3 Reflection: 20 years on: The Dexter Model of Hypertext and its Impact on Web Accessibility
- 16 Reflection: Mobile Web: Reinventing the Wheel?
- 19 Conference report: W4A – International Cross-Disciplinary Conference on Web Accessibility 2007
- 32 Accessibility Research in Malaysia

Dear SIGACCESS member:

Welcome to the new look of the online edition of the SIGACCESS Newsletter – with new layout, the use of sans-serif and larger font throughout, left-justification, and the inclusion of authors' short biographies and photographs (so that you can say hi when you meet them in meetings and conference).

In 2008, the Dexter Model of Hypertext will be 20 years old. Therefore this issue focuses on what's going on since then, including a report on the International Cross-Disciplinary Conference on Web Accessibility 2007

This issue also reports the accessibility research initiatives in Malaysia, continuing the idea of reporting work on accessibility and assistive technology around the world

Who we are

SIGACCESS is a special interest group of ACM. The SIGACCESS Newsletter is a regular online publication of SIGACCESS. We encourage a wide variety of contributions, such as: letters to the editor, technical papers, short reports, reviews of papers of products, abstracts, book reviews, conference reports and/or announcements, interesting web page URLs, local activity reports, etc. Actually, we solicit almost anything of interest to our readers.

Material may be reproduced from the Newsletter for non-commercial use with credit to the author and SIGACCESS. Deadlines will be announced through relevant mailing lists one month before publication dates.

We encourage submissions as word-processor files, text files, or e-mail. Postscript or PDF files may be used if layout is important. Ask the editor if in doubt.

Finally, you may publish your work here before submitting it elsewhere. We are a very informal forum for sharing ideas with others who have common interests.

Anyone interested in editing a special issue on an appropriate topic should contact the editor.
